Information Sheet for Applicants

Dear Applicant,

You have been nominated to apply for the 22nd Bucerius Summer School on Global Governance, that will take place August 11 to 21, 2023 in Hamburg, Germany. The Forum is organized annually by the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius (Hamburg, Germany) and the Observer Research Foundation (New Delhi, India).

The Selection Committee will invite approximately 45 to 50 participants from across the world – young people who work in very diverse fields including politics, government, business, civil society, academia and the media:

The aim of the forum is to build an international network of young leaders and to foster a dialogue on contemporary governance questions. The participants will be between 28 and 35 years of age. They will have already acquired professional experience and exhibit promise in their respective fields.

The programs provide a unique opportunity to interact with high-ranking figures from the political, business and academic communities from around the world.

Please review the checklist for your application carefully. For further information, please visit the official website: www.bucerius-summer-school.de.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Sob. Sob.
